

Earth, Planets and Space (EPS) Discount

EPS is supported by KAKENHI (24HP2006) for 5 years from 2024. The content of this program contains discounts of Express Letter. From this discount, we expect that high-quality manuscripts will be submitted to EPS.

- Direction of EPS described in the application to KAKENHI

- Achievement to “Inclusive Journal” that publishes impactful researches.
- Letters in EPS will be further strengthened by rapid publication and high quality. According to this direction, in the EPS website of Springer, the following sentence will be added, “When submitting, please explain in detail in the cover letter how the manuscript meets these criteria.”

- Subject to papers

- Express Letters submitted from March 1st, 2025 and accepted by July 31st, 2028.
- Both members and non-members

- Discounted APC

- $1184.9 (regular APC: $1640), approximately 30% discount (2025 APC)
- After 2026, APC at the year will be discounted by approximately 30 %.
